Oregon National Guard partners with Eugene-based company in the fight against COVID-19

EUGENE / APRIL 17, 2020 - On Friday over a dozen members of the Oregon National Guard visited Eugene-based company Deployed Logix (DLX) to pick up six truckloads of disaster relief products that will be distributed to smaller rural hospitals across the state in preparation for COVID-19 patients. Organized by the Oregon Health Authority, the order includes DLX rapid deployment shelters, mission-ready packages, HVACs, isolation kits, beds, and flooring. Members of the Guard also participated in a short demonstration on how to train hospitals on setting up the shelter systems.

The Oregon National Guard will be deploying the field hospitals to The Dalles, La Grande, Coquille, Reedsport, Gold Beach, Lincoln City, Lebanon, Bend, and Burns over the next several days.

DLX was founded in 2012 and continues to be the leader in American-made, rapidly deployable disaster preparedness products around the world. Its flagship shelter, the ASAP®, sets up in 60 seconds with just two people.

Working with public and private organizations around the globe including the U.S. State Department, FEMA, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the International Red Cross, the World Health Organization, the U.N., the Pan-American Health Organization, UKaid, and USAID, DLX prides itself on having the most rapid and reliable products to assist in disaster relief.
